

LATER DETAILS

Of the Lowell Disaster--Acid Mistaken For Water Poured on Nitroglycerine--Seventy Buildings Destroyed--A Score Dead.

Lowell, Mass., July 30.—Eighteen known dead with the possibility that more bodies may be discovered in the ruins of wrecked houses, ten still missing, 50 or more injured, fifteen buildings destroyed and 60 to 70 buildings damaged is the situation this morning with reference to yesterday's explosion at South Lowell.

Yesterday the three companies of the local militia were called out because of the fear that ghouls would loot the ruins. This morning two companies were dismissed from duty, being relieved by detachments of state and Lowell police. State Fire Marshal Whitcomb is expected here today to investigate the cause of the explosion. There are still six serious cases at the hospitals. The estimates of the property loss range from one hundred to two hundred thousand dollars.

Among the missing is Chas. W. Moore, teamster who was engaged in loading the dynamite on a truck. Every effort has been made to locate him, but without success. He is believed to have been blown to atoms. His wife who is an invalid, is prostrated by grief. Before leaving the house Wednesday he had mentioned the fact that he was going to load dynamite during the day. Feeling a presentiment of evil she had implored him not to go to work but he laughed away her fears. Moore leaves five children and has two sons in the navy.

Lowell, Mass., July 30.—Later details of the frightful explosion here yesterday show that more than a score are dead and about 50 people are injured.

Two small gunpowder magazines situated in the midst of the cottages of 50 mill operatives, exploded. Half a dozen men who were loading kegs of powder from one of the magazines, were blown to pieces; 4 boys, 200 yards away, were killed by the concussion, and 14 frame houses within a radius of 400 yards went down as though they had been built of cards.

Seven of these houses immediately caught fire from overturned stoves and burned.

At least three persons were caught in

BIG RELIGIOUS RIOT IN PERSIA

London, July 30.—The Times this morning describes serious religious riots in the city of Yezd, in Central Persia, which lasted more than a fortnight and ended recently. The outbreak was against religious reformers called Babis. For two days every Babi found was butchered by the rabble and the mutilated bodies dragged through the streets, followed by exultant crowds.

Houses were entered; women and children beaten and killed. One Babi was blown from the mouth of a cannon and another was butchered. Order has again been enforced. Yezd has a population of 40,000. It is a walled city, surrounded by a deep trench and is famous for its bazaar.

QUEER WORM THAT EMITS LIGHT.

St. Louis, Mo., July 30.—Dr. Heine Marks has in his possession a worm which when placed in the dark emits a glow that would make the glow from half a dozen fireflies pale into insignificance. The worm is about three-

WAR CLOUDS

Are Disappearing in the Far East--Japan and Russia Sign Protocol in Which Peace is Proclaimed-- Outlook More Hopeful.

Berlin, July 30.—It looks more hopeful in the far East, and though a war between Russia and Japan cannot yet be said to be an impossibility, it is unlikely for some time. The good effects of the trip of Kourapatkin, Russian minister of war, to Tokio, are now being felt. A treaty between the two countries has been signed.

A letter received here gives the details of the treaty in full. The document declares both Russia and Japan wish to avoid a conflict and also to protect the rights of all foreign nations in far Eastern territory.

Russia promises to evacuate Manchuria soon as possible, but the czar reserves the right to maintain a strong

TOM STEELE

FUGITIVE LAWYER FIGURES IN A WILL CASE.

Question Whether Steele's Testimony Taken in Canada Will Have Much Value in the Suit.

Columbus, July 30.—The fugitive attorney, Thomas Ewing Steele, of this city, who is in Canada evading the punishment of the law for the part he took in the sensational blackmailing case involving a score of business men, is once again a central figure in a public matter. The widow and the father-in-law of the late Patrick McNamee, who died leaving an estate of $50,000, alleged that he made a will in favor of the widow. This will was drawn, they say, by Steele, who declared that he had lost it.

A motion was made in the Probate Court to restore the will, and Ulric Sloane was made commissioner to take Steele's testimony, but has not yet visited him in his retreat. Representative J. F. McNamee, of this city, the dead man's brother, through former Attorney-General Monnett, made a motion to be appointed administrator of the estate. Mr. McNamee, in a statement to the court, said that his sole aim was to protect the interests of his brother's children, and to save for them a portion of the estate. He stated further that he did not propose to permit Steele in Canada to make a will for his dead brother. It is a question whether Steele's testimony will have much value in the light of his condition before the law. Probate Judge Black reserved his decision.

ASLEEP FOR 44 DAYS.

New York, July 30.—After having been asleep 44 days, C. E. Endicott Allen, Harvard student, is improving. Allen's sleep is supposed to have been caused by overwork.

NEGRO WOMAN IS BANK PRESIDENT

Richmond, Va., July 30.—Maggie I. Walker, a schoolteacher, colored, enjoys the distinction of being the first woman, white or colored, ever elected president of a bank in this section. She has been chosen to head the St. Luke's Penny Savings bank. The institution will open for business Sept. 1 with $75,000 deposits.

President Walker enjoys the confidence of both races.

CZAR AND SUITE MAKE PILGRIMAGE

St. Petersburg, July 30.—The czar, czarina and their suite have left to join the great orthodox pilgrimage to Saroff, province of Tamboff, where the orthodox church is to celebrate the canonization of the hermit, Prokhor Moshnin, under the name of Saint Seraphim. Some 6000 bishops and clergy of European Russia will participate.

Sanford De Long's 5 year old son drank carbolic acid at Upper Sandusky and is dying.

Married Woman Elopes.

Findlay, O., July 30.—Mrs. Jehn Bach day clerk in the Meyers hotel, has disappeared. She is the bride of but six months and no reason can be assigned for her absence. She left a note to her mother, telling her she was gone with an unknown oil man. She was well liked and her friends were many.

POWER OF SCHOOL BOARDS SUPREME

Dowling Green, O., July 30.—In the case of H. D. Stouffer v. The Board of Education of North Baltimore, the circuit court has rendered a decision of general interest.

The plaintiff secured a temporary injunction restraining the school board from erecting a school building because the money to pay for it was not all in hand.

The common pleas court dissolved the injunction and the circuit court has denied an application to suspend the order to dissolve, claiming that the power of school boards in all matters pertaining to schools or school property is absolute and supreme, except where excessive and illegal taxation may be the result of their action.

RICH, BUT CAN'T SPEND A PENNY

New York, July 30.—Mrs. Lucy A. Simpson, rich in her own right, accustomed to luxury from childhood, can not by reason of a lawsuit, buy even a postage stamp without being in contempt of court.

She has sumptuous apartments at the Hotel Lorraine, Fifth avenue and Forty-sixth street.

Six weeks ago she left town to avoid process servers when her dressmakers brought suit on a bill, and Tuesday she was enjoined by order of Judge Bischoff from in any way disposing of her property.

According to the order, Mrs. Simpson cannot tip a waiter in the hotel, buy a newspaper or postage stamp without being in contempt of court.

Mrs. Simpson ordered gowns of Martin & Gyves, a dressmaking firm, and when the bill was sent around she took offense.

The dressmakers sent the bill many times and supplemented it with notes and telephone calls and finally Mrs. Simpson sent a sharp note saying she would pay when she was ready. The note occasioned the suit.

IN WAIT

THE KENTUCKY WOMAN LAY FOR HER VICTIM

And When the Evans Girl Arrived Mrs. Davis Opened Fire on Her—The Latter Escaped.

Pikeville, Ky., July 30.—Enraged because her husband had walked along the public highway with Addie Evans, Mrs. William K. Davis got her husband's Winchester rifle and, going to a point near the Evans woman's home, lay in wait for her. When Miss Evans stepped into the yard Mrs. Davis opened fire. Three shots rang out, and Mrs. Davis, being a splendid shot, put three bullet holes into the body of her supposed rival, who sank to the yard a corpse. Her little brothers and sisters wept over the remains until the father of the girl arrived on the scene and dragged the body into the house.

The Davis woman returned to her home, told her husband what she had done, and, getting more ammunition for the Winchester made a hasty retreat to the West Virginia side of the river. She was soon lost to view in the mountain fastnesses. Authorities from the Kentucky side of the river are making every effort to locate her, and have asked the West Virginia authorities to assist them. A thorough search of the mountains has been made, but to no avail. Information from Thacker, W. Va., is to the effect that a woman believed to Mrs. Davis, in man's garb, boarded a freight train there shortly before daylight.

The belief is that if it was Mrs. Davis she is headed for Huntington, W. Va. Telegrams have been sent to the officials there to be on the lookout for her.

Mrs. Davis has long been jealous of her husband and only a few months ago had trouble with another woman in her home community because she thought her husband was giving her undue attention.

The Evans girl, who was shot to death, was about 26 years old and had only recently returned home from some of the Ohio river towns, where she had been employed.

SENATOR DAVIS' WIDOW MARRIES

Washington, July 30.—Mrs. Anna Agnew Davis, widow of the late United States Senator, Cushman K. Davis, of Minnesota, and Hunter Doll of Knoxville, Tenn., were married at the home of the bride here by Rev. E. S. Dunlap. Only a few intimate friends witnessed the ceremony. The couple left at once for the South.

NAME OF SCHOOL AT ADA CHANGED

Ada, O., July 30.—At a meeting of the directors of the Ohio Normal university the name of the institution was changed to the Ohio Northern university. The fact that students graduated from this school have never received proper credit at other schools prompted this change.

Alumni of the Ohio Normal university assembled here to honor former President D. H. S. Lehr.

At the reception tendered him about 1500 students and citizens were present.

Broke the Record.

Atlantic City, N. J., July 30.—Chas. M. Schwab, president of the steel trust, smashed the automobile record between here and Camden yesterday, by covering the distance, about 57 miles, in one hour and 20 minutes. A mile a minute was made during a part of the run.

FAT MAN TAXED

Chicago, July 30.—The fat man is to be taxed not for the space he occupies in the world as in Sweden, but for the amount of cloth that covers his bulky form. At the meeting of the Union made garment association just ended it was decided to adjust prices to accord with the size of the garment.

ELUDES OFFICERS FOR DOZEN YEARS

Somerset, Ky., July 30.—Richard Taylor, charged with the murder of Clay Haynes and who has been a fugitive for 12 years, was arrested at Starns and lodged in jail here.

Taylor was 44 years of age and had been mistreated by persons who were drinking, among them being Haynes. Taylor afterwards met Haynes and it is alleged, told him that he was going to kill him and that he had better say his prayers, at the same time drawing a pistol.

Haynes pleaded with him but Taylor would not desist.

After Haynes had finished praying he shot him to death. He then defied the sheriff, who attempted to arrest him and fled the country.

BARGAIN RUSH

CAUSED GREAT CRUSH IN STORE AT TOLEDO.

Toledo, July 30.—One woman was seriously injured, and over a score fainting in a bargain-counter rush at the five and ten cent store here. There was a large crowd of women congregated in front of the store when the doors were opened, and they rushed in pell-mell. The crowding in continued, despite endeavors of the proprietors to close the doors. Many women tried to get out, but were borne on into the store by the crowding at the door of those eager to enter.

Recognizing that they could not handle the crowd the proprietors of the store called upon the police department for assistance, as there was great danger of the fainting women being trampled to death by their frantic sisters. Chief Hall, Sergeant Conway, Detective Daily and Officers Fisher, O'Neil and Schroder hurried to the scene, and were completely "done up" by the time the rush was over. Chief Hall says that in the two hours he was in the store he saw at least 25 women faint away as the result of the jam.

The most serious case was that of Miss Pearl Bonday, of Delta, Ohio, a nineteen-year-old girl, who is visiting an aunt here. She was crowded up against a counter and injured about her abdomen. She fainted, and would have been trampled upon but for the presence of Chief Detective Hall. He was within a few feet of her, and showing the women aside, picked up the girl and lifted her over the counter. She was carried out a rear door, and a physician worked over her for half an hour before she was restored to consciousness. She was then taken to her aunt's home in an ambulance.

San Francisco, July 30.—The desperate convicts who made their escape on Monday from Folsom penitentiary have again succeeded in eluding their pursuers, and are now concealed in the thick underbrush which covers the hills in Eldorado county.

On Tuesday night it was thought that the sheriffs and their men had them cornered in Eldorado gulch, and they would certainly be captured or shot down yesterday.

All night the man hunters prepared for a fierce conflict, as soon as the dawn should break.

The line around the place where the convicts were supposed to be lying concealed was drawn tighter and tighter during the night.

In making their approach the various posses exercised the greatest precaution, as it is known that the convicts are fully determined not to be taken alive.

At daybreak they made a dash to get out of the gulch and to break through

WILL DEDICATE THE NEW CHAPEL

Columbus, July 30.—Archbishop Henry Moeller, coadjutor of the archdiocese of Cincinnati, who stopped in Columbus yesterday on his way to Somerset where he ordains a large class at St. Joseph's seminary tomorrow, will dedicate the beautiful new chapel at St. Mary's of the Springs Tuesday.

The chapel is a part of the new addition to the convent just completed and contains three large marble altars donated by friends of the sisters.

The walls are exquisitely frescoed and the statuary and paintings are especially striking.

CANCER TREATED WITHOUT KNIFE.

Reading, Pa., July 30.—A successful treatment of cancer without the knife by a novel method was used last evening at the Hameopathic hospital. The method consisted of sterilizing the cancer by driving into it antiseptic salts with a strong electric current of from 500 to 1000 milliamperes, the salts of mercury and zinc being used. From

SEVERED AN ARTERY

In His Enemy's Wrist Then Held His Victim Till He Died, Taunting the Dying Man as the Two Walked Along the Road.

RAHWAY, N. J., July 30.—Nokitukai Itobino, a Japanese sailor, calmly confessed today that he murdered a fellow sailor, Keto by name. After severing an artery in his enemy's wrist so he would bleed to death, the murderer grasped the other hand of his victim and held it so that he could not staunch the flow of blood.

Then he walked the road with the dying man, and as they walked the murderer taunted the other with hard words and jeers, the doomed man staggering from weakness occasioned by the struggle with his captor. Finally the dying man fell fainting on the dusty road and expired. The murderer was calm when arrested. Accused of the crime, he said: "Yes, I killed him; why not? He was my enemy. Now he is dead and I am satisfied. Do with me as you will." The men were employed on the schooner Hugona which arrived here yesterday.

FUGITIVES

Being Supplied With Food by Ex-Convicts--Men Have Eluded Their Pursuers--Evidence Show- ing the Conspiracy to be Widespread.

Folsom, Cal., July 30.—Reports from the man hunt indicate that the fugitives are being supplied with food by ex-convicts from a cache made in a canyon. Ex-convict Collins led the officers off the trail causing a loss of valuable time. At Pitto Hill Lily Nance, ten years of age, is the heroine. During the fight there she walked to Cool, a distance of five miles, and had the operator wire to Folsom for ammunition. As no one else would go the girl volunteered and was four hours on the road reaching there at daylight. Weapons still are being found in the prison, showing the conspiracy extended to nearly all the prisoners. The greatest mystery is as to how the men secured the dynamite. They had enough to kill fifty men.

San Francisco, July 30.—The desperate convicts who made their escape on Monday from Folsom penitentiary have again succeeded in eluding their pursuers, and are now concealed in the thick underbrush which covers the hills in Eldorado county.

Miss Mollie Wagner of Utica entertained 30 of the young misses last Thursday for supper. Among them were Ethel Shipley and Esther Hatch of this place.

BUCKEYE LAKE.

The last meeting of the Harvesters was quite a jolly occasion for the members. One candidate was given the final degree and three other candidates were given the first degree. The degree team did the work in approved style. A good joke has found its way out and it is on the Captain of the team and the ninth degree candidate. It happened that Capt. Jones of the degree team forgot his place and tried for the place of the candidate but the boys of the team took him to his station and gave the last part of the ceremony in lasting style at which the candidate began to whistle much to the amusement of the older members.

Capt. Jones is the man deserving credit for the joke as he informed the candidate to whistle and he did. The boys of the team declare the joke to be on the captain for he cannot whistle at all.

At the next meeting of the Harvesters the fifth degree will be conferred followed by a banquet at their hall.

The members of the Kirkade and Liggett Co., of Columbus held their annual outing at Buckeye Lake park Saturday. Three cars were necessary to convey the people and their baggage.

The day was spent in various sports, boating, bathing, racing contests and a ball game. The members of the company tendered Col. Wells their thanks for his special effort for their entertainment.

LITTLE CLAY LICK.

The farmers of this community are nearly done their hay harvest.

The corn has the appearance now of being rather a light crop. Oats is well filled and good most places.

Very little of the wheat has been harvested, but a machine is expected soon. Reports from other neighborhoods say the wheat was not well filled.

Our fourth and last quarterly meeting on Brownsville circuit, was held at Little Clay Lick July 25 and 26.

Our popular Presiding Elder Dr. McElfresh was present both days and delivered two fine sermons. The attendance was large.

The church has been newly papered and presents a very decided improvement in its appearance.

Several from Newark attended the sacramental service at Little Clay Lick among the members Charles D. Lake and wife and little daughter, Hattie, and Helen.

Val Rogers is getting along as well as could be expected. Dr. Smith of Newark and Dr. Cooperider of Brownsville very successfully performing an operation for appendicitis. The incision five inches long, is healing and we hope to see him out and around again soon.

Mr. Samuel Farmer is very poorly at this writing. He has heart trouble, with other complications. He has been ailing all summer and does not improve as rapidly as his friends desire.

Mrs. Andy Loughman has been quite sick but is improving some what at the present time.

Mr. Shauck of Newark was in our vicinity Tuesday.

E. M. Coe and family spent Monday with their parents at Hillside.

We daily and nightly hear the reports of the dynamite, used in the construction of the Newark and Zanesville electric road and we people living along the old survey take up the sad refrain:

"Of all the words of tongue or pen the saddest are it might have been."

CASSIUS CLAY'S DUELS

Noted Kentuckian's Recollections of His Encounters.

BOWIE KNIFE A FAVORITE WEAPON

Desperate Fight With Sam Brown, the Man Selected to Kill Him—Outcome of His Battle With Turner. His Reasons For Carrying Dr. Declarey.

As a duelist, always victorious, the late General Cassius Marcellus Clay, minister to Russia under Presidents Lincoln and Johnson, noted abolitionist and author, was said to have been implicated in more encounters and to have killed more men than any other fighter living.

When he was asked not long ago to tell about his first fight he said it was with a rival for the hand of Miss Warfield. When the wedding day of the young woman and the general was approaching the rival, Dr. Declarey, wrote to her family a letter abusing the successful suitor. The general sought him out, with a second, and gave him a cowardling. Then he sent a challenge, but Declarey, after failing to respond, committed suicide.

He next recalled the case of Tom Marshall. The Clays and the Marshalls had been at feud for a long time. Tom, according to General Clay, would not fight when challenged to do so while they were both fighting against the Mexicans. Instead of agreeing to a duel, Tom jumped into the river and tried to drown himself.

It was during his campaign for congress against Wickliffe that General Clay had his bloodiest encounter, in which his only weapon was a bowie knife. He once told the story to a newspaper man in these words:

"During the campaign Wickliffe introduced my wife's name into one of his speeches. I challenged him and we fired at ten paces. Both of us missed, and I raised my pistol up into the air and demanded a second fire. The seconds would not permit this and we left the grounds without a reconciliation or an apology on either side."

"Well, Wickliffe here had the worst of the fight, and during the canvass for congress I was making a very good opposition to him, much to the disgust of the proslavery party. He had a handbill which he read during his speech. We had our speeches together, and when he brought out this bill I always arose and asked if I might interrupt him. He would politely consent, and I would then say the handbill he had read was untrue and had been proved so."

"The proslavery men got tired of this, and they decided to kill me. They sent Sam Brown, who was one of the most noted bullies in Kentucky. It is said that he had had forty fights and had never lost a battle. Brown came, and he and Wickliffe, a fellow named Jacob Ashton and Ben Wood, a police bully, held a consultation at which they loaded a pistol which Brown was to use on me the next day. I knew nothing of this, and I had not my dueling pistol with me. I interrupted Wickliffe, as usual, and as I did so Brown struck me with his umbrella and told me that my statement was a lie."

"I saw at once that it meant fight, and when I recognized Brown I knew it meant a fight to the death. I had a long, sharp bowie knife in the breast of my coat and I jerked this out, but before I could strike, Brown's friends grabbed my arms from behind and hauled me back about fifteen feet from Brown. Brown now pulled his revolver and told them to get out of the way and let him kill me. The crowd got back and I stood alone. Brown had his pistol pointed at me and I started toward him. I could see him looking along the barrel of the revolver. He took aim and waited until he thought I was near enough to give him a sure shot and then fired. I felt the ball strike me in the breast and I thought it had gone through me, and I determined to kill him if I could before I died. I came down on his head with a tremendous blow of the bowie knife, but did not split open the skull. I struck him again and again and stunned him so that he was not able to fire. With one cut of the knife I sliced his nose right in two, so that it separated in the middle, and came out as flat as a pancake. With another blow I cut off his ear so that it hung by a shred, and with a third I put out his eye. The conspirators now seized me and I was struck with hickory sticks and chains."

"I broke loose from my captors and again made for Brown, and they, to keep him out of my way, picked him up and threw him over a stone fence about seven feet high, and this ended the fight. Though I was the assaulted party, they afterward tried me for mayhem, and at his trial Brown confessed the conspiracy and Henry Clay defended me. Of course I was not convicted."

Although General Clay never traveled without a brace of pistols in his satchel, his favorite weapon was a bowie knife, which he always carried concealed under his coat. During a fight at a political meeting once he was stabbed in the lung. He drew his bowie knife and rushed upon a man named Turner, who had been responsible for the outbreak. The crowd got out of his way and he found a clear path to the man who had incited the riot. With a shout of anger, he plunged the knife into the man's abdomen, and then, exclaiming "I die for my country," he fell fainting to the floor. He was carried home, and for many days hung between life and death. Upon the day that he was able for the first time to leave his bed the man whom he had stabbed died.

PROF. HICKS

This is What the Weather Prophet Has to Offer Us for the Coming Month.

The predictions for August by Weather Prophet W. W. Marsh was published in Wednesday's Advocate. This is what Prof. Hicks has to offer for the coming month:

August will begin business during a storm period lasting from the 1st to the 4th. The professor is not sure that there will be something serious doing during that interval, or only a dinky storm. A day or two of picnic weather will follow this disturbance, which in turn will give way to another storm period lasting from the 6th to the 8th. A wave from the northern refrigerator will follow. Hicks rises in his earnestness and sends forth this prediction in a most confident manner: "Hick's says it will be red hot everywhere from the 11th to the 16th." There will be storms and sunshine through the month, while the influence of the planet Mars will be appreciably felt. While there will be many storms, yet the rain crop will be light and poorly distributed.

Night Was Terror.

"I would could nearly all night long" writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block, I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but, when all other medicines failed, three $1.00 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 58 pounds." It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1.00 at Frank D. Hall's drug store.

PLOT

To Release an Indiana Prisoner Was Discovered by the Police of Cleveland, Ohio.

Cleveland, O., July 30—The police have accidentally discovered an alleged plot to break jail by a life sentence man in the arrest of Arthur and Lulu Blinn. The pair were arrested last Friday and were arraigned on the charge of being suspicious persons. At the time of the arrest letters were found on the person of the woman which were written by J. E. Mallory, from the Indiana state prison, in South Bend, detailing a plot to liberate him.

The woman was to bring saws to cut the bars, and a way had been arranged by which he would receive them. Mallory, with a partner, is serving a life sentence for murder. He has a long record. The police record of the woman shows that she is a dangerous criminal.

The man is not so well known by the police, although he was at one time tried for robbery in Akron. The pair were sentenced to pay $50, and to serve 30 days.

THE RAILWAYS

CLEVELAND TO BE ON MAIN LINE OF THE B. & O.

An Old Suit Against B. & O. Renewed. The Day's Railroad News, Both Local and General.

Cleveland, O., July 30—It is now established beyond doubt that the Baltimore and Ohio railroad will have Cleveland on its main line and that direct connection will be made between Cleveland and Columbus, and a traffic agreement will give them a line to Cincinnati and St. Louis.

Work is now going on connecting Lodi and Lester on the C. L. and W. branch, and work will be started soon between Medina and Lester. From Lodi the new line will use a branch now extending to Millersburg, and from there to Mt. Vernon a new line will be built. From Mt. Vernon to Newark and Columbus is already B. & O. property. From Columbus to Cincinnati and St. Louis they will work in harmony with B. & O. Southwestern and come in indirect competition with the Pennsylvania and the Big of Fur.

Will Renew Suit.

Parkersburg, W. Va., July 30—The heirs of W. H. Mattingly will renew the suit brought by him years ago against the B. & O. railroad for $25,000 alleged to be due for the construction in 1886 of part of what is now the B. & O. road between here and Grafton. He accepted third mortgage bonds of the old Northwestern Virginia railroad, and when it was sold to the B. & O. no provision was made for paying the debt or protecting the bonds. The case was once decided against him, but was reversed and remanded by the United States Supreme Court.

P. M. Arthur's Successor.

Youngstown, O., July 30—Grand Assistant Chief Engineer A. B. Youngson of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, who is lying at the point of death in Meadville (Penn.) City Hospital, and who by the recent sudden death of Chief P. M. Arthur became the executive head of the brotherhood, has just named M. H. Shay of this city as his successor, to act in case of his death.

Shay is chairman of the Committee of Adjustment in the brotherhood on the Erie. There is no better known engineer in the country. For the past 12 years he has been chairman of the Grievance Committee of the organization. He was born at Watkins, Tyler county, N. Y., the son of B. L. Shay, a baggagemaster for 40 years on the Northern Central railroad at that place. He received his education in the public schools, leaving them when a mere boy to become a pilot on Lake Seneca, his duty being to conduct canal boats across the lake.

In February, 1860, Shay began his life work as a railroad man, running as fireman on what is now the Buffalo division of the Erie between Corning and Buffalo. In 1863 he was transferred to the Susquehanna division, where he remained for two years, coming thence to the Mahoning division at Youngstown. He was made night engine dispatcher in the shops here and in 1865 became a freight engineer. In 1875 he was promoted to a passenger run on this division between Cleveland and Youngstown, where he has most continuously since.

Mr. Shay is an ardent worker in the Trinity M. E. church, of which he is a member. He is a staunch advocate of temperance. His record on the Erie is one of the most remarkable of any of the engineers for the small number of wrecks he has had. He is married, with a grown-up family.

Work Train Over an Embankment.

Cleveland, O., July 30—A work train while running at a high rate of speed near Gates Mills, on the Cleveland and Eastern Electric railway, yesterday ran into an open switch and plunged down a 60 foot embankment, resulting in the motorman and conductor sustaining injuries that will prove fatal.

The injured: Benjamin Ballen, motorman, leg broken, head cut and internal injuries. Samuel Hull, conductor, body cut and internal injuries.

Gould Wanted Terre Haute.

New York, July 30—Official confirmation of the purchase of the Hooley interest in Evansville and Terre Haute is obtained together with the announcement that the purchase price was $37.50 a share and that J. P. Morgan & Co. will finance the deal.

Stock was delivered to them during the day, and before the market closed the transaction, quickly conceived and as rapidly executed, was completed.

It is understood that the sale of the Evansville and Terre Haute was hastened somewhat by an understanding that George Gould had also apparently recognized the value of the property on account of its position in the Illinois coal belt and coveted it for the Wabash.

Mr. Youngson Dead.

Cleveland, O., July 30—A dispatch received here early today says A. B. Youngson, who succeeded to the grand chieftainship of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers on the death of Chief P. M. Arthur, died at Meadville, Pa., at 2:40 o'clock this morning.

Local Railway Notes.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and, therefore, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer One Hundred Dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address, F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O. Sold by Druggists. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

EMERSON'S PROSE STYLE.

Held to Be Lacking in the Quality of Writers Called Masters.

What shall be said of Emerson's prose? Was Matthew Arnold right when, as an experienced critic calmly judging the favorite author of his youth, he denied that the "Essays," the lectures and "English Traits" formed a body of prose of sufficient merit to entitle Emerson to be ranked as a great man of letters? It seems as if the time had come for Emerson's countrymen frankly to accept this verdict. Because of deficiencies, both of style and of romance, Emerson does not belong to the small class of the great masters of prose. His style, despite the fact that "Nature" and many of the essays contain pages of eloquent prose almost equal in power and beauty to noble poetry, was nearly always that of the lecturer or preacher rather than that of the writer. He too frequently lost the note of distinction and was content if he satisfied his far from exigent audiences. In diction, to be sure, he was a conscious and consummate master, and it need scarcely be said that few writers have surpassed him in the ability to compose a pregnant sentence. But, as is generally admitted and as is shown by his practice of piecing his notes together, he was rarely able to evolve a paragraph, much more a whole essay, in a masterly

STATE FAIR

AND INDUSTRIAL EXPOSITION BEGINS AUGUST 31.

Everything Rapidly Moving to Completion for Event—Improved Grounds. 15 Departments.

The Ohio State Fair opens at Columbus on the morning of Monday, August 31, next, and will continue five days with a full program for each day. All exhibits are required to be in place and in operation at the opening time. A great exhibit is already positively assured as every available foot of exhibition space in the immense buildings and all the platted ground for exhibits in the open has been taken. The people will have presented, for their inspection a general industrial exhibition embracing all the newest inventions and latest ideas, complete and perfect in every department.

The grounds of the Ohio State Fair are perfectly park like in every particular. natural growth, ornamentation, general conveniences, inviting retreats, lakes, drives and walks, all well kept and equal to the finest city parks. Fifteen grand exposition buildings are located at desirable points throughout the park and in such position as to preserve the harmony of the whole. These buildings contain a total of 393,340 square feet of exhibition space, besides which there are many private buildings, and acres of ground platted and arranged for exhibits proper to be operated on open ground.

The exhibition of 1933 will attract the attention and attendance of all Ohio citizens interested in the progress of the State. The management of the Fair has provided for many high class features of amusement and special attractions to enliven the general exhibition, and all who attend will be royally entertained.

WEDDING

Of Miss Olive M. Norman and Joseph Payne Lucas of Coshocton on Wednesday Night.

The many friends of Miss Olive M. Norman, will be surprised to hear of her marriage last evening at 7:30 to Mr. Joseph Payne Lucas of Coshocton, Ohio. Owing to the recent death in the family, only the immediate friends were present to witness the ceremony.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. C. Lucas of Cadiz, O., father of the groom, assisted by Dr. L. W. White of this city.

Miss Lena Selig acted as bride's maid while Mr. Bertrum Boyer of Coshocton served as best man.

After the ceremony the bridal party repaired to the dining room, where a fine course supper was served.

Miss Norman is the accomplished granddaughter of Mrs. M. A. Norman of No. 220 Buckingham street, at whose home the ceremony took place. Miss Norman is a graduate of the class of 1901 and ever since has been teaching at Wren, O. Mr. Lucas is a popular young man of Coshocton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lucas left on Panhandle train No. 20 for their future home in Coshocton.

NO NIGHT WATCHMAN.

Centerburg, O., July 30.—The tailoring and gents' furnishing store of E. E. McGuire was burglarized for the second time within a few months. ## GRACE THARP

Who Killed Herself in Columbus Was Former Resident of Licking Co. Jos. Tharp's Daughter.

Grace Tharp, who committed suicide at Columbus last Saturday formerly lived in Pataskala, this county. She was the daughter of Jos. Tharp.

There were five daughters in the family: Minnie, aged 22; Cora, 20; Grace, 18; Daisy, 16; Sadie, 14. The father, on Saturday afternoon swore out a warrant in police court charging his daughters with disorderly conduct, and while the officer was in the house prepared to take the five girls to the city prison, the mad act was committed in a rear room. The girl swallowed a quarter of an ounce of laudanum and carbolic acid and died at a city hospital later in the day.

It is claimed that the father has been unjustly severe with his daughters, and it has been but a short time since the release of the dead daughter from the city work house where she had been sent on charges preferred by her father. The latter was almost overcome with remorse when told of his child's act and would have ended his own life had he not been prevented.

Brutally Tortured.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equalled. Joe Golobick of Colusa, Calif., writes: "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known. I came across Electric Bitters and it's the greatest medicine on earth for that trouble. A few bottles of it completely relieved and cured me." Just as good for Liver and Kidney troubles and general debility. Only 50c. Satisfaction guaranteed by Frank D. Hall, druggist.

MAYNARD WANTS IT.

Columbus, O., July 30.—Captain John Maynard of Payette county, the present reading clerk of the House of Representatives, has formally announced his candidacy for the chief clerkship of the next House. He was the assistant of Clerk McElroy, who died last month, for the past four years, and is extremely popular with those members who will return next year.

There is an unconfirmed rumor that Dr. L. F. Cain, who was retired by reason of the scrap in Morgan and Noble counties as representative, will essay the race for the clerkship.

Gov. Nash returns from the north improved in health.

ATTENDANCE

AT DENISON COMING YEAR WILL BE LARGE.

Unprecedented Demand for Rooms—The Granville College is in a Very Prosperous Condition.

Granville, O., July 30.—Dr. E. W. Hunt, president of Denison university, says that there never was a time in the history of Denison when there were so many rooms engaged by the students in advance of the opening of the college as at the present time. He says that the capacity of Sheparison College dormitories is already overtaxed, besides that of an extra house on Plum street, which has been rented and fitted up for the use of students. In another column of this paper appears an advertisement for parties having furnished rooms to rent in Granville for use of students. Any such parties should leave word with Miss Margaret Tuttle, in Granville. The rooms in Denison University dormitories which are being remodelled and refitted, will be ready for occupancy by the opening of the University this fall, are also in great demand. This state of affairs is one of the many indications of the very prosperous condition of this old and successful institution of learning. Its greatly increased attendance of students, and its new buildings, its enlarged endowment and increase in the faculty all show that Denison University is coming to the front rank to which it is entitled as the only Baptist college in Ohio. Dr. Hunt, the efficient and successful president, has more than realized the highest expectations of the friends of the institution. Backed by a good faculty and a splendid board of trustees and a substantial fund, which though quite ample, might be increased to advantage, Denison is doing good work, and is reaching out in all directions for still greater influence in the future.

OPINION

Of Circuit Judges at Delaware Holds Valentine Anticombine Law Unconstitutional.

Delaware, O., July 30.—Presiding Judge R. H. Voorhees, of Coshocton, and Associate Judges L. H. Winch, of Cleveland and Thomas T. McCarty, of Canton, who held a June term of Circuit Court here have handed down their decision on the local coal dealers, who had been indicted by the Common Pleas Court here for violating the Valentine law.

The dealers on trial were John Sell, John Gardner, Willard Galleher, J. J. Swickheimer, George Clark, William Mathews and P. W. Gage.

The Circuit Court reversed the decision of the lower court, the Judges holding that the criminal part of the Valentine law is unconstitutional.

This portion of the laws states that "it is unlawful to make or enter into an agreement to maintain a uniform system of prices to stifle competition and restrict trade."

The case will go to the Supreme Court for final adjudication.

SECRET

Kept by Zanesville Company Nearly a Year—Married in Kentucky on Sept. 21 Last Year.

Zanesville, O., July 30.—The many friends of Miss Margaret Lentz and Mr. F. A. Casey were surprised when it was announced that they had been married on September 21 last.

They went to Cincinnati on an excursion and while in the Queen City rode to Covington and were made man and wife.

Just for the novelty of it, they decided to keep their wedding a secret, their idea being to see how long it would be before their marriage became known.

The public or their friends might have remained in ignorance for all time had they not become tired of waiting for their secret to be discovered and announced it themselves.

Official statistics show that there are 17,000,000 children in Russia between the ages of 6 and 14 receiving absolutely no education.

Playthings In Court.

Some very curious models have from time to time been produced in court in various lawsuits. There was a model of a mill produced lately in a patent case where the patentee claimed his patent to have been infringed. The patent was in connection with some part of the machinery of the mill. The model mill was set working in court while judge and counsel watched its movements with much interest. A model steam engine was once produced in an action against a railway company. The judge insisted on having the whole working of the engine explained to him, whereupon the counsel who was speaking asked for an adjournment of the trial for twelve months, when he would be able to give the required explanation.—London Tatler.

How to Remove Stones From Land.

Large rocks should be heated by burning a quantity of brush on each one, and then with a good heavy sledge and steel wedges most of them can be split into fragments that can be hauled off upon the drag. Medium sized rocks may be drawn out by digging round them, fastening a log chain upon the lower side and attaching the team. Let the horses start slowly, and with a little effort the stone may be pulled out at the second or third pull. A good way to get rid of stones is to bury them, but bury them deep—not less than three feet from the surface—as they will be certain to work up to the top in a few years, when the work has to be done over again at considerable cost.

Nothing to Show For It.

"Say, doctor, what's that last $3 item in your bill for?"
"Let me see. Oh, yes; I gave you a thorough examination on that day. Don't you remember?"
"Sure I remember. But do you suppose I am going to pay you for that when you took up an hour of my time and then couldn't find anything the matter with me after all?"—Buffalo Express.

TOMORROW THE DAY

Indications are That a Big Crowd Will Be Out to See the Advocate and American-Tribune Teams Play Ball—Sporting News.

The great game to be played between teams representing the Advocate and American-Tribune has been the topic of conversation in sporting circles for the past week and only one more day intervenes until the umpire's "play ball" will send the rival teams together in what promises to be one of the closest and most exciting contests of the season.

The importance of this game is fully realized by those who have it in charge, and for this reason the choice of an umpire was somewhat difficult.

The names of several who were suggested were carefully canvassed by Captain Leonard Graham of the Advocate team, and Captain Handley Hixon of the American-Tribune, and they decided to ask Mr. Ernest T. Johnson to assume the task of rendering the decisions. This choice met with the instant and hearty endorsement of every man who will play on either team, and will be sure to meet with the approval of the public. Mr. Johnson will decide the plays as he sees them, and there will be no tedious wrangling.

Both teams have about concluded their practice and only light work will be indulged in from now until the game is called. The Advocate team is in the pink of condition and prepared for a hard bruising contest. Coach Stivers has worked hard with his athletes, and they also claim to be conditioned to the hour. Experts who have seen them however, are of opinion that the men are too finely drawn, and having been on edge for several days, they appear to have gone just a trifle stale.

This is evidenced in a nervousness and an appearance of being ill at ease, that has been noticed in the men, but Coach Stivers says his men are fit to play for a king's ransom. We hope they are in good shape and believe they will be. There has been rumors, that the reports of the American-Tribune team going stale have emanated from their training camp, and are intended to influence the betting odds, which have at all times favored the Advocate at 4 and 5 to 3. The reports of poor condition did cause a flurry for a time, and the odds lengthened to 2 to 1 and 11 to 5 but this condition soon righted itself and the Advocate will probably begin the game a 5 to 3 favorite to win.

The Advocate team will bat in the following order, which is subject to change:

- Parkinson ss—
- Graham p—
- Scanlon lb—
- Crilly c—
- Miller 2b—
- Beck 3b—
- Wilson c f—
- Gibson r f—
- Gaumer i f—

As substitutes who will be seen during the contest the following players will be on the bench: Bowers, Roesser, Coine, Butler and Lewis.

The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock but there will be plenty to amuse the crowd before the game begins so that it is advisable to go to the game at an early hour.

Pataskala 20—Etna 10.

Pataskala, O., July 30—The Pataskala Stars defeated the strong Etna team in a hard hitting game at Etna, Wednesday afternoon. Score: Pataskala . . . . . 20 0 7 1 1 1 4—20 Etna . . . . . 2 1 0 0 3 0 3—10 Batteries—Pataskala, Grimm and Merchant; Etna, Smith and Harner. Basehits—Pataskala 15, Etna 3. - Pittsburg 7, Cincinnati 3.
- Chicago 3, St. Louis 2.
- Philadelphia 12, Brooklyn 7.
- New York 5, Boston 2.

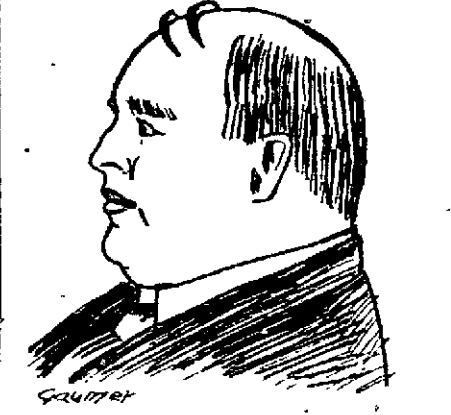

American League.

- New York 15, Boston 14.
- Washington 4, Athletics 4.
- Detroit 5, St. Louis 1.

JOHN ROBERT GIBSON.

The above cut represents Mr. John Robert Gibson, the undisputed star of the Advocate team. This shows Mr. Gibson as he is.

Mr. Gibson has kindly permitted the newspapers to use his name as an advertisement. The American-Tribune, under the direction of Editor Stivers, has taken advantage of Mr. Gibson's generosity and has at times made slighting references to the name of Gibson. Mr. Gibson has treated all these calumnies with a natural dignity and quiet scorn that has put to shame his traducers. Mr. Gibson's serenity of countenance and nobility of expression, as shown in the cut, easily distinguish the gentleman from all others of the name of Gibson.

Two Original Gibson Drawings.

Mr. Gibson is here shown in the act of batting and of running to first base. The reader will notice the keen and watchful eagerness with which the distinguished ball player waits for the ball. The reader will also take cognizance of the unconscious grace of motion with which he bounds from home to first with meteoric rapidity. By all means see Gibson play ball.

MR. EDW. H. FRANKLIN.

This drawing was taken from a rare old photograph. Since the photograph was taken Mr. Franklin's features have altered considerably, especially those nearest the top of the column. Mr. Franklin declined to actively participate in the game but readily and graciously consented to act as a substitute.

This is quite an addition to the Advocate team and makes victory an easy matter. Mr. Franklin's name will lend dignity to the game and will doubtless prove to be a great drawing card. Mr. Franklin is not known as a substitute around the Advocate office. The Advocate employees decline to use so base a term in referring to a player of such note and he is always mentioned as the honorary ball player. The entire public is invited, regardless of age, sex or religion, to see Mr. Franklin fill the position of honorary ball player.

MR. JOS. E. MILLER.

The reader is here asked to pause a moment in respect to the gentleman whom the artist has so eloquently pictured. Mr. Miller comes not from common baseball stock. Mr. Joseph E.

Miller has been connected with the Idlewild team since its beginning and he has been prominently identified with its successful career from the time the Idlewild team first claimed the state championship until the last time it has made the claim.

The Tribune at first was inclined to object to Mr. Miller's playing on account of his being a professional, but the matter has been amicably settled and Mr. Miller will positively be seen in the game.

The Advocate is proud to display Mr. Miller's resemblance. Challenging the Tribune to produce Mr. Miller's equal the public is again invited to see Gibson play ball.

The Advocate has pictures of several other stars on its baseball team, but the samples shown herewith will do for today. Better go out to Idlewild Park tomorrow afternoon and see the whole outfit play. It will be a game for your life.

Our imported champion, Gaumer, has "few the coop." He tearfully spouts as follows: "I bought my second base uniform, and now they want to put me 'way out in the field where no one can get onto my shape."

Oh Gaumer, dear Gaumer, please play. Our hopes are dashed to the wall. Since you have deserted

We feel disconcerted.

So Gaumer, dear Gaumer, play ball.

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION.

LEGAL NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of a resolution of the council of the city of Newark, passed on the 6th day of July, 1903, there will be submitted to the qualified electors of the city of Newark at a special election to be held in the city of Newark on the 14th day of August, A. D. 1903, the question of issuing bonds of said city in an amount in excess of one per cent of the total value of all the property in such city as listed and assessed for taxation, that is to say, in the sum of $50,000.00 for the purpose of supplying deficiencies in the revenues of said city.

That the voting places for said special election shall be at the following designated places, to-wit: First Ward—Harrington's bicycle room, 232 East Main street. Second Ward—Fire Department, Central Station, Fourth street. Third Ward—Southwest corner of Eighth street and Western avenue, (formerly Davis shop). Fourth Ward—School room, North Fourth street, corner Chestnut and North Fourth streets.

Those who vote in favor of the proposition of issuing the bonds as aforesaid shall have written or printed on their ballots the words "For the issue of Bonds," and those who vote against the same shall have written or printed on their ballots the words "Against the issue of Bonds." July 23, 1903.

ANDREW J. CRILLY, Mayor.

Elder James Calvin the marrying parson, of Youngstown, is dead, aged 91 years. Wiley Sloan, insane, killed his sister at Paintsville, Ky., yesterday.

AMUSEMENTS.

COMEDIANS' COMMENT.

Arthur Rigby and Lew Benedict were making up for the first part of John W. Vogel's Big Minstrels, the other night, and they hadn't quarreled either. Said Lew to Arthur, as he applied the burnt cork: "Did it ever occur to you that barbers and carpenters were alike? Both are known by their shavings." "True," responded Rigby. "I was shaved this morning by a carpenter; he wielded the razor as it was a broadax, removing more flesh than beard." John W. Vogel's Big Minstrels will appear at Newark, August 18.

EXQUISITE MUSIC.

The bandmen of the Gordon Highlanders "The Kilties," who will appear at Idlewild Park afternoons and evenings, August 7 and 8, have always given due prominence on their programs to the works of the great masters, and are equally at home in performing the less pretentious compositions of the popular writers, but they chiefly excel in their own peculiar national music, that of Scotland, and no son of "Old Scotia" ever misses the opportunity of hearing the famous Highlanders' Band in patriotic music so dear to the hearts of a John Tamson's bairns. It is unnecessary to refer to the exquisite musical beauty of Scottish airs and the manner in which they appeal to all. Suffice it to say that the faithful interpretation of Scottish music by the Gordon Highlanders is as near perfection as anything musical can be.

THE LITTLE MINISTER.

Tonight the Chicago Stock company opens the engagement of The Little Minister. The play is a direct dramatization from Barrie's famous novel of the same name and is without question one of the best offerings ever from the pen of this popular author. A sermon with a play for its text is a novelty and yet in The Little Minister was the inspiration for a recent Sunday discourse by Rev. A. K. Wright of the Prospects Heights church Brooklyn, who prefaced his sermon by explaining that his desire to talk upon the subject of personal purity was suggested by witnessing this great success, last season. "I am conscious of the fact," said the clergyman, "that a minister who acknowledges to getting inspiration from the theatre is thought by some good christians to be a very suspicious person; but I believe a mass of the people and a large number of the clergy of today recognize in the theatre, a great moral force. Next to real life there is no more forceable way to impress a lesson, than in the presentation of real life, which the stage affords." The great moral lessons in this play are such as have appealed to me, all my life, in my study of men, women and books but never more vividly than in this drama and the popularity of the play and the continued success, testify that our people will encourage the better class of literature on the stage as well as in the library. I trust all of my people will have the pleasure of seeing this great story during its run in our city.

The above is only one of hundreds of unsolicited endorsements this play receives and our theatre goers should order seats at once if they are intending to witness it at the casino either tonight, Friday or Saturday.

"For years fate was after me continuously" writes A. G. Gledhill, Verbena, Ala. "I had a terrible case of Piles causing 24 tumors. When all failed Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me. Equally good for Burns and all aches and pains. Only 25c at Frank D. Hall's drug store."

LIFE IN ENGLISH VILLAGES.

It is Not the Idle Form That Poets Sing About.

"I know a village where there are no fewer than thirty cottages with but one bedroom apiece, and in each of these single bedrooms six, seven and more people are sleeping," says A. Montefiore-Bruce, writing in the London Mail about life in the average English village. "In one of them, father, mother and eight children huddled together. In another, father, mother and six children—three of whom are grown up—are sleeping. In these cottages there is one living room downstairs and no sanitary arrangement of any kind. At the back of the cottages runs an open ditch. It is also an open sewer."

"Here, in the very heart of the country, I expect to find abundance of pure water, abundance of sweet air. Too often I find neither about the cottages. Hundreds of villages have no water supply, though a comparatively small expenditure could provide it. I know a village—it is typical of hundreds—where the cottages have to go half a mile to get water. A foul ditch furnishes another village with the whole of its water supply. Offensive refuse heaps lie piled round the crumbling walls of the cottages. The wooden floors within are rotten with sewage."

"Norfolk, Suffolk and Essex contain many such villages, and other counties—such as Bedford, Cambridgeshire, Wiltshire, Dorset, Somerset—easily vie with them. I could write of lonely cottages far across the fields, with no water within a mile, whence the children morning after morning walk two miles to school, and drag their tired limbs that distance back again at night—and this whatever the weather; where the postal service comes but once a week; where the men and boys walk daily five or six miles to and from work; where of drainage there is none; where of the simplest sanitation there is none; where the medical officer of health comes not, and where the inspector of nuisances is unknown."

MEXICAN CUSTOMS.

Female friends kiss on both cheeks when greeting or taking leave. Gentlemen speak first when passing lady acquaintances on the street.

When a Mexican speaks to you of his home he refers to it as "your house."

The sofa is the seat of honor, and a guest waits to be invited to occupy it. Men and women in the same social circles call each other by their first names.

Mexican gentlemen remove their hats as scrupulously upon entering a business office as in a private residence.

Dinner calls are not customary, but upon rising from the table the guest thanks his host for the entertainment. After a dance the gentleman returns his partner to her seat beside her parents or chaperon and at once leaves her side.

The fashionable call of a few minutes is unknown. A lady who arrives at 4 o'clock will remain until 6 or 7. The calls of intimate friends are half day visits.

Her Little Joke.

They were in the studio. Artists' trappings and bohemian paraphernalia were placed about the room with studied carelessness.

Heavy tapestries and portieres choked the walls. Costly statuary, mediæval firearms, poniards, yataghans and priceless and historic armor were ranged idly about the room.

Seated on a heavily upholstered divan, eying the American heiress at work on an intricate landscape, was the duke.

"Bah Jove!" he ejaculated suddenly. "Do you know, Miss Millyns, I'm wrapped up in you and"—

"Huh!" interrupted the wealthy maiden with Yankee sarcasm. "I don't see why you should be wrapped up. I haven't bought you yet."

The duke sat dumfounded, wondering what there was in her remark to cause a smile to break out over her sweet visage.—New York Times.

Monkey and Parrot in Brazil.

In Brazil monkeys and parrots have interests in common. They not only roost in the same trees, but work for mutual benefit. The monkeys cannot easily pick the big Brazil nut husks from the trees, so the parrots gnaw them loose, allowing them to drop, the fall to the ground splitting them. Then the monkeys tear the cracked husks asunder, gather the nuts and divide them with the parrots. Sometimes, when the husks fail to split, the monkeys carry them up to the highest limbs of the tree and let them drop again. Monkey and parrot enjoy their harvest side by side.

HEIRESS

To Rich Man's Estate—An Ohio Girl
Ignorant of Her Real Name Educated as an Orphan.

New Orleans, La., July 30.—Reared and educated in a New Orleans convent and ignorant of her true name and family history, Miss Renesse Cravens of Toledo, Ohio, has for years believed that she was alone and penniless in the world. Recent discoveries, however, have revealed the fact that she is the granddaughter of the late Hiram P. Evans, one of the largest land owners and richest sugar planters in the state of Louisiana, and that she is heiress to at least $150,000 worth of Louisiana real estate.

As may well be imagined Miss Cravens lost not time in coming to Louisiana. At the present moment she is coming as fast as steam can carry her to New Orleans to consult attorneys and undertake other measures necessary to bring her into her own.

Miss Cravens' parents died when she was an infant. She was placed in a convent and her expenses paid by some unknown person. All the while she believed that her name was Renesse Evans, and this circumstance leads to the belief that her grandfather Hiram P. Evans, paid her expenses. After leaving the convent she went North. Accident revealed to her that she was the sole heir to the H. P. Evans estate. The romantic incident has created much interest locally, and New Orleans believes that it will be treated to further romance in connection with the affair.

PRESIDENT

Criticized by Methodist Paper for Sending Message of Condolence
When the Pope Died.

Richmond, Va., July 30.—The Christian Advocate, the organ of the Methodist church, published in this city, contains an editorial today under the heading "Excessive Adulation."

It discusses the expressions of sorrow that have gone forth over the death of the Pope and criticizes especially Methodist preachers and President Roosevelt.

After characterizing the Pope as having shown stubborn adherence to the most arbitrary pretensions of the Roman Catholic hierarchy, it says:

"We confess to no little surprise that some Protestant pulpits have almost canonized him and even some Methodist preachers have well nigh lauded him to the sky. What has surprised us even more was the sending of a telegram of condolence by the President of the United States. It is a wholly unprecedented act."

OSBURN

PASSES THE PHYSICAL TEST AT ANNAPOLIS.

Will Now be Admitted to the Naval Academy—He is a Jackstown, Ohio, Boy.

The Advocate received a special telegram Thursday afternoon from Annapolis, Md., announcing that Carl T. Osburn, the Licking county candidate for admission to the National Naval Academy at Annapolis had successfully passed the physical examination.

Some time ago young Mr. Osburn passed the mental test with flying colors but passed the physical examination conditionally. He was advised to submit to a slight operation and present himself a month hence for another final test. His second examination has just been made and he has passed which means that he will be admitted to the academy.

Mr. Osburn is the son of Mrs. M. O. Osburn of Jackstown and is a very promising young man. He will be a credit to his home town and county in the navy.

ADVOCATE VS. TRIBUNE.

CAPT. EWEN

Admitted That He Did Not Tell the Truth to Hargis as It Was Not Safe.

Cynthiana, Ky., July 30.—During the cross examination Attorney Golden asked Captain Ewen about a conversation held between him and Judge Hargis, in the latter's office in which Ewen stated that he would make affidavit that he did not know who did the shooting. Ewen admitted the conversation but said he was afraid he would be killed then and there if he had told the truth.

There is no doubt that this question acted as a boomerang for the defense and it opened a way for Ewen to explain why he had made the statement, in which explanation he had opportunity to explain some of the inside workings of the Hargis faction.

The first witness today was S. S. Taubee, the present clerk of the Circuit court. He testified that he was near enough to hear the shots fired on the day of Marcum's assassination. He saw Marcum a few minutes before the shooting standing in the court house door, talking with Captain Ewen. He saw Marcum fall backwards and exclaim: "Oh Lord, they have killed me." At the same time he saw Captain Ewen run. He saw Ewen a short while after the shooting in front of the court house and he remembered seeing Tom White after the killing in the crowd, after the body had been removed. He said he did not know who fired the shots.

CONDENSED

Late News Dispatches Telling of Important Events in a very Few Words.

London, July 30.—A disastrous fire occurred on the docks at Grimsby this morning. When the blaze started a strong breeze was blowing and the fire quickly spread. Many of the storage sheds for rope and other materials shipped from the town were burnt out. The damage amounted to about $500,000.

St. Petersburg, July 30.—A strike riot occurred at Tiflis today. The strikers tried to stop a train but were met by a force of military who fired into the crowd, killing and wounding 28 persons.

Ballston, N. Y., July 30.—The strike of the employees of the Union Bag and Paper company's paper mills here was settled this morning. The men returned to work with their wages increased, but their union was not recognized.

San Francisco, July 30.—Gen. Miles has accepted the invitation of the Grand Army and will attend the encampment here in August.

Wilmington, Del., July 30.—Judge George Gray has accepted the proposition to act as the fifth arbitrator on the Alabama commission to settle the strike in the coal fields there.

Columbus, O., July 30.—Representatives of the National Association of window glass manufacturers and delegates from the employees who belong to the Knights of Labor are in conference here to adjust the wage scale. Ten thousand men in Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and New York, are interested. An increase is demanded.

Canton, O., July 30.—H. G. Deweese of Massillon, was unanimously nominated Democratic candidate for senator in the 21st district today.

St. Petersburg, July 30.—General Kuropatkin, the Russian minister of war, who yesterday returned from an extended tour of the far east, declared that Japan is not inclined to force an issue with the Czar's government. He admits that relations between Russia and Japan were somewhat strained when he reached Tokio. A fairly strong party in Japan averted war, but the general bulk of Japanese statesmen, including the Mikado, were not influenced by the jingoism of the war party. The atmosphere, the war minister reports, is now cleared and war in the near future is an improbability.

Washington, July 30.—The controller of currency this morning closed the Doylestown National bank of Doylestown, Pa., and appointed National Bank Examiner J. W. Schofield receiver. The statement is made at the office of the controller of currency that this failure was brought about by speculation in stocks on the part of an officer and a number of customers of the bank.

TICKET

NOMINATED BY REPUBLICANS AT BUCKEYE LAKE.

Dr. C. D. Watkins Defeats John Smallwood and Robert Leeding for Representative.

THE TICKET.

For Representative—Dr. C. D. Watkins, of Ettna.
For Clerk of Courts—S. E. Siegfried of Hartford.
For Treasurer—J. H. Rogers of Hanover.
For Commissioner—T. C. Jury of Licking.
For Infirmary Director—"Becky" Bell.

(By wire from staff correspondent.)
Buckeye Lake Park, July 30.—The Republican county convention being held here today is the mecca for Republicans from all over the county, who are flocking here in large numbers. Every car on the Columbus, Buckeye Lake and Newark Traction Railway coming in is crowded with Republicans.

It was a shrewd move to select Buckeye Lake as the place for holding the convention as in this way a crowd was secured. Otherwise with no hope of electing anybody this year it would have been hard to get the Republicans together in large numbers.

The convention was not called to order until this afternoon, awaiting the arrival of Dr. C. D. Watkins of Ettna, who, it is thought, will be nominated for Representative over Robert Leeding. The sentiment has been drifting that way and Messrs Hoover, Black, Ickes and other prominent men in the party have decided to sidetrack Leeding in favor of a younger man. They are a unit for Dr. Watkins, and if he will not accept then they are in favor of S. E. Siegfried, who was private secretary for Col. M. M. Gillett, when he made his campaign for the nomination for auditor of state. Siegfried ran for Representative against Hon. S. Stacker Williams some years ago.

The candidates for the various county offices are not very enthusiastic realizing as they do, that they will have to work against a united Democracy this fall. This means that they will run in vain.

The principal business to be transacted at the convention today will be the naming of the candidates for the several county offices, all the other business of the convention having been transacted at the meeting in May.

Dr. G. W. Garrison of Utica, will in all probability, be nominated for County Treasurer.

Mr. William L. Prount of Newark, was tendered the nomination of Clerk of the Court. Mr. Prount said that he would accept if he was sure that he would not be elected, and he will probably accept the nomination.

The convention was called to order at one o'clock by Attorney Carl Norpel, Earl W. Murphy and Chas. L. H. Long being secretaries.

This convention met for the purpose of nominating candidates for county offices, all other business usually transacted at county conventions having been transacted at the convention on May 23. It was intended to call the convention to order before dinner but the men who had the slate in charge waited for the arrival of Dr. Watkins of Ettna, whom they wished to put up for representative. This place had been tendered to Rev. J. C. Schindler but he refused to be a candidate.

A committee on rules and order of business was appointed consisting of H. J. Hoover, F. M. Smith and Arthur Wyeth.

Nominations were called for for representative. Judge W. A. Irvine nominated John Smallwood of the First ward, P. F. Koontz nominated Robt. Leeding of Newton township, H. J. Hoover of the Fourth ward nominated lows: Watkins* 254, Leedings 33, lot was taken which resulted as follows: Watkins 154, Leedings 33, Smallwood 47, necessary for a choice of 123. Dr. Watkins was declared the nominee and was called forward to make a speech.

The following nominations were then made:
Clerk of Courts—S. E. Siegfried of Hartford township.
Treasurer—J. H. Rodgers, Hanover.
Commissioner—T. C. Jury, Licking.
Infirmary Director—"W. A. "Becky" Bell.

Senator N. F. Overturn of Delaware was introduced to the convention by F. M. Smith and R. W. Smith and made a few remarks.

LATER DETAILS

The entire catastrophe occupied the space of scarcely five seconds, but at that time the surrounding property was swept as if a small volcano had broken forth. Every house within 200 yards collapsed. Trees were blown down, the grass within a hundred yards was mowed as if by a lawn mower, while bricks from the two magazines were hurled far across the river and all over the neighborhood. For several minutes afterwards the air was filled with smoke and dust, illuminated by the glare from the already burning debris.

The work of rescue began at once, but in many cases the flames had already gained full sway over the crumbled ruins and several persons were burned to death before the wreckage which covered them could be removed. The property is situated over the Lowell line in Tewkesbury but the Lowell fire department aided in caring for the wounded. Before a stream of water was started from the engines the hose from all the wagons was taken out and the wounded were placed in the wagons and hurried to the hospital. Ambulances soon appeared and assisted the firemen, and all sorts of vehicles were pressed into service. Nearly 40 persons were taken to the two hospitals within an hour, while many more, whose injuries were slight, had their wounds dressed and remained to assist in caring for the less fortunate.

The explosion shook Lowell, and within half an hour there were at least 5,000 persons on the scene of the catastrophe. The crowd so hindered the work of caring for the wounded that the mayor sent out a militia call. Three companies responded and three hours later had thrown a cordon of men around the district and cleared the place of every one except those immediately engaged in quenching the flames and searching for victims.

FORTY MILES AWAY

This Explosion Was Felt—Recorded by Harvard Instruments.

Boston, July 30.—Persons coming to Boston from Lowell were eyewitnesses of the explosion.

Director A. W. Sullivan, of the Boston and Maine railroad, says that as the train approached the cartridge company's plant his eyes rested upon the cluster of brick buildings which comprise the plant. For an instant the massive brick walls of the magazine bulged outward and then crumbled away amid a great cloud of dust. The concussion lifted the wheels from the rails, and it seemed as if the cars would turn over. The train righted itself, however, and sustained no injury.

In Lowell proper, two miles distant, the shock was tremendous. On many streets the earth appeared to tremble slightly and buildings shook. In all sections of Lowell, especially that part nearest the Concord river, glass was smashed from windows, and in several instances persons were cut. Quite a number of panes of large plate glass in the business streets of the city were demolished. The detonations were heard over a large portion of Eastern Massachusetts. Towns 25 miles away reported having distinctly noticed them and in Tewkesbury, Billerica and other places glass was broken and, according to a dispatch from Lynn, slight damage to windows was done in that city, which is 20 miles away.

The concussion was felt in Boston, 40 miles away, and at Exeter, N. H., which is a greater distance from Lowell. At many points a score of miles distant window glass was shattered and other damage done.

The shock was generally felt in Cambridge. The disturbance was recorded by instruments at the Harvard college observatory.

Similar observations elsewhere, it is thought, may furnish valuable information regarding the velocity of the concussion.

MOVE

For the Study of Epilepsy Under Auspices of the State is Begun at Columbus.

Columbus, O., July 30.—Pointing to the fact that the State of Ohio annually pays about $3,000,000 for the support of state hospitals for the insane and epileptics and sets practically nothing aside for the study of these diseases a conference of representatives of the medical profession and of the state institutions was called here to discuss future action. The members of the board are Drs. J. E. Wilson and W. K. Rogers of Columbus; Dr. A. P. Ohlmacher, Gallipolis; Dr. W. O. Thompson, Columbus; Dr. C. S. Hamilton, President of the Medical Association, Columbus; F. W. Langdon, Cincinnati; A. B. Howard, Cleveland, and J. L. Jaccagon, Toledo. Dr. Thompson is President of the Ohio State University.

It was practically decided that the state should take the initiative by providing a fund for the study of the pathology of the insane and epileptic. Practically nothing is known of epilepsy, yet it is spreading rapidly.

It is likely that the committee which was appointed by the Ohio State Medical Association will make a definite request of the General Assembly next winter and if the same is granted Ohio will be the first state in this work, as she was in founding the first epileptic state hospital.
